A Career Opportunity on Vancouver Island

Experienced Periodontist | Nanaimo, BC

We are looking for an experienced periodontist to join our established periodontal and prosthodontic practice in beautiful Nanaimo, BC.

Our practice is built on clinical excellence, genuine patient relationships, and a collaborative team culture. We are looking for someone who shares these values and is interested in building a rewarding, long-term future with us.

An Opportunity to Grow and Build a Future

With and established practice, a strong referral base, and trusted relationships with referring dentists, we offer an excellent foundation for a fulfilling professional future.
Working alongside our prosthetic team creates opportunities for interdisciplinary collaboration, comprehensive treatment planning, and exceptional patient outcomes.
This is an opportunity to contribute for professional growth, to develop lasting professional relationships, and to play a meaningful role in the continued success and future direction of an established practice.

Who We Hope to Welcome

- An experienced periodontist committed to clinical excellence and outstanding patient care.
- A compassionate, ethical clinician who values trust and long-term patient relationships.
- A collaborative professional who values strong relationships with referring dentists and colleagues.
- A team-oriented individual eager to contribute to the continued growth and success of a practice.
- Someone looking to establish roots on Vancouver Island and build a lasting professional future.

A Wonderful Place to Call Home

Nanaimo offers a beautiful coastal setting, abundant outdoor recreation, a welcoming community, and an enviable work-life balance. Whether you already call Vancouver Island home or are considering a move, this is an opportunity to build a rewarding career in a place where lifestyle and professional fulfillment go hand in hand.

The Right Person. The Right Fit. The Right Future.

We believe the strongest professional partnerships are built on shared values, mutual respect, and a commitment to excellence. We are looking for more that someone to fill a position; we want a colleague who will grow with us and play a meaningful role in the future of our practice.

If you're an experienced periodontist seeking a supportive, collaborative environment and a long-term professional home, we would love to hear from you.

To start a conversation, please send your CV and a brief introduction outlining your background and vision for your future.
